Annie's Assisted Ascent

Glastonbury Tor
Saturday 4th May 2024

Fundraising challenge organised by
Festival Medical Services

Sponsorship Money going to two Disability charities:

- One third - Motivation,
- Two thirds - Humanity & Inclusion

Former Lord Lieutenant of Somerset, Annie Maw, is going to climb iconic 518-foot Glastonbury Tor in a wheelchair. The steep and rocky terrain is not normally considered suitable for wheelchairs – but for Annie, the challenge is on!

Annie is a Patron of Festival Medical Services. They are a band of volunteers who provide nursing and medical care at Glastonbury Festival and other outdoor events – and Annie wants more people to learn about them and their valuable work.

motivation

Motivation - An international disability and inclusion charity providing wheelchairs, training and support to empower disabled people in Africa and India to gain independence, improve their confidence and transform their own lives.

DONATE

Humanity & Inclusion - An international charity working in situations of poverty and exclusion, conflict and disaster. Working tirelessly alongside disabled and vulnerable people to help meet their basic needs, improve their living conditions and promote respect for their dignity and fundamental rights.
